Approved For Release 2007/09/04: CIA-RDP84T00301R000400010073-3 Central Intelligence

Top Secret OCO CABLE Ed.

25X1

National Intelligence Daily (Cable)

19 July 1982

Top Secret

CPAS NIDC 82-167C 19 July 1982

25X1

Copy 402

Approved For Releas	se 2007/09/04 : CIA-RDP84T00301R000400010073-3
	Top Secret	25>
Cont	cents
	Iran-Iraq: Stalemate Continues 1
	Israel-Lebanon: Intermittent Firing	25X1
	Japan: Overseas Investment

25X1 25X1

Top Secret

IRAN-IRAQ: Stalemate Continues (Information as of 2300 EDT) //Iran apparently launched the second phase of its offensive on Saturday but was unable to achieve any significant gains. Tehran warned the Arab states in the Persian Gulf yesterday against continued military support for Iraq. Noscou may pull a large number of advisers out of the Al Basrah area.// the Iranians remain about 2 kilometers inside Iraq, and both sides are digging in around the Iranian penetration. Additional Iraqi armor, infantry, and artillery are arriving in the battle area.// Comment: //Iran now has launched three major assaults against Iraqi lines with only minimal gains. Iranian commanders will have to rethink their strategy soon, perhaps shifting their attacks to the northwest area of the Al Basrah front or along the Shatt al Arab. Iraqi units in the battle area are fatigued after six days of heavy fighting, however, and their positions are being gradually eroded by the continuing Iranian attacks./ Iranian Warning Iranian assembly speaker Rafsanjani warned yesterday that "if truckloads of arms continue to go to Iraq, then Iran will have the right to an appropriate response." Comment: //Rafsanjani's warning probably was directe against Kuwait, which is the unloading point for Soviet arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwaitis are unlikely to curtail transshipments to Iraq unless the Iranians launch continued		Top Secret
(Information as of 2300 EDT) //Iran apparently lawnched the second phase of its offensive on Saturday but was unable to achieve any significant gains. Tehran warned the Arab states in the Persian Gulf yesterday against continued military support for Iraq. Moscow many pull a large number of advisers out of the Al Basrah area.//
(Information as of 2300 EDT) //Iran apparently lawnched the second phase of its offensive on Saturday but was unable to achieve any significant gains. Tehran warned the Arab states in the Persian Gulf yesterday against continued military support for Iraq. Moscow many pull a large number of advisers out of the Al Basrah area.//
//Iran apparently launched the second phase of its offensive on Saturday but was unable to achieve any significant gains. Tehran warned the Arab states in the Persian Gulf yesterday against continued military support for Iraq. Mosecow may pull a large number of advisers out of the Al Basrah area.// the Iranians remain about 2 kilometers inside Iraq, and both sides are digging in around the Iranian penetration. Additional Iraqi armor, infantry, and artillery are arriving in the battle area.// Comment: //Iran now has launched three major assaults against Iraqi lines with only minimal gains. Iranian commanders will have to rethink their strategy soon, perhaps shifting their attacks to the northwest area of the Al Basrah front or along the Shatt al Arab. Iraqi units in the battle area are fatigued after six days of heavy fighting, however, and their positions are being gradually eroded by the continuing Iranian attacks./ Iranian Warning Iranian assembly speaker Rafsanjani warned yesterday that "if truckloads of arms continue to go to Iraq, then Iran will have the right to an appropriate response." Comment: //Rafsanjani's warning probably was directe against Kuwait, which is the unloading point for Soviet arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwaitis are unlikely to curtail transshipments to Iraq unless the Iranians launch continued	IRAN-IRAQ: Stalemate Continues on Saturday but was unable to achieve any significant gains. Tehran warned the Arab states in the Persian Gulf yesterday against continued military support for Iraq. Moscow may pull a large number of advisers out of the Al Basrah area.// the Iranians remain about 2 kilometers inside Iraq, and both sides are digging in around the Iranian penetration. Additional Iraqi armor, infantry, and artillery are arriving in the battle area.// Comment: //Iran now has launched three major assaults against Iraqi lines with only minimal gains. Iranian commanders will have to rethink their strategy soon, perhaps shifting their attacks to the northwest area of the Al Basrah front or along the Shatt al Arab. Iraqi units in the battle area are fatigued after six days of heavy fighting, however, and their positions are being gradually eroded by the continuing Iranian attacks./ Iranian Warning Iranian assembly speaker Rafsanjani warned yesterday that "if truckloads of arms continue to go to Iraq, then Iran will have the right to an appropriate response." Comment: //Rafsanjani's warning probably was directe against Kuwait, which is the unloading point for Soviet arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwaitis are unlikely to curtail transshipments to Iraq unless the Iranians launch continued	(Information as of 23	00 EDT)
about 2 kilometers inside Iraq, and both sides are digging in around the Iranian penetration. Additional Iraqi armor, infantry, and artillery are arriving in the battle area.// Comment: //Iran now has launched three major assaults against Iraqi lines with only minimal gains. Iranian commanders will have to rethink their strategy soon, perhaps shifting their attacks to the northwest area of the Al Basrah front or along the Shatt al Arab. Iraqi units in the battle area are fatigued after six days of heavy fighting, however, and their positions are being gradually eroded by the continuing Iranian attacks./ Iranian Warning Iranian assembly speaker Rafsanjani warned yesterday that "if truckloads of arms continue to go to Iraq, then Iran will have the right to an appropriate response." Comment: //Rafsanjani's warning probably was directed against Kuwait, which is the unloading point for Soviet arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwaitis are unlikely to curtail transshipments to Iraq unless the Iranians launch continued Top Secret	on Saturday but was unable to achieve any warned the Arab states in the Persian Gultinued military support for Iraq. Moscow	significant gains. Tehran f yesterday against con-
about 2 kilometers inside Iraq, and both sides are digging in around the Iranian penetration. Additional Iraqi armor, infantry, and artillery are arriving in the battle area.// Comment: //Iran now has launched three major assaults against Iraqi lines with only minimal gains. Iranian commanders will have to rethink their strategy soon, perhaps shifting their attacks to the northwest area of the Al Basrah front or along the Shatt al Arab. Iraqi units in the battle area are fatigued after six days of heavy fighting, however, and their positions are being gradually eroded by the continuing Iranian attacks./ Iranian Warning Iranian assembly speaker Rafsanjani warned yesterday that "if truckloads of arms continue to go to Iraq, then Iran will have the right to an appropriate response." Comment: //Rafsanjani's warning probably was directed against Kuwait, which is the unloading point for Soviet arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwaitis are unlikely to curtail transshipments to Iraq unless the Iranians launch continued Top Secret about 2 kilometers inside Iraq, and both sides are digging in around the Iranian penetration. Additional Iraqi armor, infantry, and artillery are arriving in the battle area.// Comment: //Iran now has launched three major assaults against Iraqi lines with only minimal gains. Iranian commanders will have to rethink their strategy soon, perhaps shifting their attacks to the northwest area of the Al Basrah front or along the Shatt al Arab. Iraqi units in the battle area are fatigued after six days of heavy fighting, however, and their positions are being gradually eroded by the continuing Iranian attacks./ Iranian Warning Iranian assembly speaker Rafsanjani warned yesterday that "if truckloads of arms continue to go to Iraq, then Iran will have the right to an appropriate response." Comment: //Rafsanjani's warning probably was directed against Kuwait, which is the unloading point for Soviet arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwaitis are unlikely to curtail transshipments to Iraq unless the Iranians launch continued Top Secret about 2 kilometers inside Iraq, and both sides are digging in around the Iranian penetration. Additional Iraqi armor, infantry, and artillery are arriving in the battle area.// Comment: //Iran now has launched three major assaults against Iraqi lines with only minimal gains. Iranian commanders will have to rethink their strategy soon, perhaps shifting their attacks to the northwest area of the Al Basrah front or along the Shatt al Arab. Iraqi units in the battle area are fatigued after six days of heavy fighting, however, and their positions are being gradually eroded by the continuing Iranian attacks./ Iranian Warning Iranian assembly speaker Rafsanjani warned yesterday that "if truckloads of arms continue to go to Iraq, then Iran will have the right to an appropriate response." Comment: //Rafsanjani's warning probably was directed against Kuwait, which is the unloading point for Soviet arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwaitis are unlikely to curtail transshipments to Iraq unless the Iranians launch continued Top Secret about 2 kilometers inside Iraq, and both sides are digging in around the Iranian penetration. Additional Iraqi armor, infantry, and artillery are arriving in the battle area.// Comment: //Iran now has launched three major assaults against Iraqi lines with only minimal gains. Iranian commanders will have to rethink their strategy soon, perhaps shifting their attacks to the northwest area of the Al Basrah front or along the Shatt al Arab. Iraqi units in the battle area are fatigued after six days of heavy fighting, however, and their positions are being gradually eroded by the continuing Iranian attacks./ Iranian Warning Iranian assembly speaker Rafsanjani warned yesterday that "if truckloads of arms continue to go to Iraq, then Iran will have the right to an appropriate response." Comment: //Rafsanjani's warning probably was directed against Kuwait, which is the unloading point for Soviet arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwaitis are unlikely to curtail transshipments to Iraq unless the Iranians launch continued Top Secret about 2 kilometers inside Iraq, and both sides are digging in around the Iranian penetration. Additional Iraqi armor, infantry, and artillery are arriving in the battle area.// Comment: //Iran now has launched three major assaults against Iraqi lines with only minimal gains. Iranian commanders will have to rethink their strategy soon, perhaps shifting their attacks to the northwest area of the Al Basrah front or along the Shatt al Arab. Iraqi units in the battle area are fatigued after six days of heavy fighting, however, and their positions are being gradually eroded by the continuing Iranian attacks./ Iranian Warning Iranian assembly speaker Rafsanjani warned yesterday that "if truckloads of arms continue to go to Iraq, then Iran will have the right to an appropriate response." Comment: //Rafsanjani's warning probably was directed against Kuwait, which is the unloading point for Soviet arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwaitis are unlikely to curtail transshipments to Iraq unless the Iranians launch continued Top Secret in around the Iranian penetration. Additional Iraqi armor, infantry, and artillery are arriving in the battle area.// Comment: //Iran now has launched three major assaults against Iraqi lines with only minimal gains. Iranian commanders will have to rethink their strategy soon, perhaps shifting their attacks to the northwest area of the Al Basrah front or along the Shatt al Arab. Iraqi units in the battle area are fatigued after six days of heavy fighting, however, and their positions are being gradually eroded by the continuing Iranian attacks./ Iranian Warning Iranian assembly speaker Rafsanjani warned yesterday that "if truckloads of arms continue to go to Iraq, then Iran will have the right to an appropriate response." Comment: //Rafsanjani's warning probably was directed against Kuwait, which is the unloading point for Soviet arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwaitis are unlikely to curtail transshipments to Iraq unless the Iranians launch continued Top Secret assaults against Iraqi lines with only minimal gains. Iranian commanders will have to rethink their strategy soon, perhaps shifting their attacks to the northwest area of the Al Basrah front or along the Shatt al Arab. Iraqi units in the battle area are fatigued after six days of heavy fighting, however, and their positions are being gradually eroded by the continuing Iranian attacks./ Iranian Warning Iranian assembly speaker Rafsanjani warned yesterday that "if truckloads of arms continue to go to Iraq, then Iran will have the right to an appropriate response." Comment: //Rafsanjani's warning probably was directed against Kuwait, which is the unloading point for Soviet arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwaitis are unlikely to curtail transshipments to Iraq unless the Iranians launch continued Top Secret	in around the Iranian penetration. armor, infantry, and artillery are	Additional Iraqi Iranian assembly speaker Rafsanjani warned yesterday that "if truckloads of arms continue to go to Iraq, then Iran will have the right to an appropriate response." Comment: //Rafsanjani's warning probably was directed against Kuwait, which is the unloading point for Soviet arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwaitis are unlikely to curtail transshipments to Iraq unless the Iranians launch continued Top Secret	assaults against Iraqi lines with of Iranian commanders will have to resoon, perhaps shifting their attacharea of the Al Basrah front or alor Iraqi units in the battle area are days of heavy fighting, however, and	only minimal gains. think their strategy ks to the northwest ng the Shatt al Arab. fatigued after six nd their positions are that "if truckloads of arms continue to go to Iraq, then Iran will have the right to an appropriate response." Comment: //Rafsanjani's warning probably was directed against Kuwait, which is the unloading point for Soviet arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwaitis are unlikely to curtail transshipments to Iraq unless the Iranians launch continued Top Secret	Iranian Warning against Kuwait, which is the unloading point for Soviet arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwaitis are unlikely to curtail transshipments to Iraq unless the Iranians launchcontinued Top Secret	that "if truckloads of arms continu	ue to go to Iraq, then
Top Secret
Top Secret	against Kuwait, which is the unload arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwait	ding point for Soviet tis are unlikely to
Top Secret	against Kuwait, which is the unload arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwait	ding point for Soviet tis are unlikely to ess the Iranians launch
Top Secret	against Kuwait, which is the unload arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwait	ding point for Soviet tis are unlikely to ess the Iranians launch against Kuwait, which is the unload arms destined for Iraq. The Kuwait	ding point for Soviet tis are unlikely to ess the Iranians launch a major air assault against Kuwait or win a clear victory at Al Basrah. Iran already has staged limited airstrikes against Kuwait three times during the warthe last time in October 1981but these had little impact on Kuwaiti policy.//

Top Secret
On Friday, Kuwait increased oil production to nearly 1 million barrels per dayalmost 200,000 barrels per day above its OPEC ceilingto permit increased shipments of petroleum products to Iraq

Top Secret

2

25X1

25X1

25X1 25X1

Top Secret	25X
ISRAEL-LEBANON: Intermittent Firing
//The cease-fire continues to hold, although there were sporadic incidents of sniper fire and rocket attacks in Beirut and eastern Lebanon. The Israeli cabinet met yesterday and repeated its concern about the slow pace of the negotiations.//	25X
An Israeli defense spokesman yesterday reported sporadic incidents of sniper fire and rocket attacks on Israeli forces around Beirut and in the Bekaa Valley over the weekend. He said that Israeli forces would continue to observe the cease-fire but would return any fire.	25X
//The spokesman also emphasized that Palestinian attacks on Israeli forces in the Bekaa are emanating from Syrian-controlled areas and that Syrian intelligence officers are briefing those units before they carry out a raid. He said at least 40 attacks have occurred since 20 June, adding that he did not know "how much longer this will be accepted.//"	25X
Comment: //The Israelis are carefully cataloging all incidents they consider cease-fire violations in the event they decide to move against the Palestinians in Beirut or the Syrians in the Bekaa.	25X
welcome a Syrian action in eastern Lebanon because Israel could then accomplish its "objectives in that part of the country," which appear to be complete Syrian evacuation rather than a limited presence in the Bekaa.	25X 25X
tion rather than a rimited presence in the benda.	25X
Israeli Cabinet Meeting
The Israeli cabinet met yesterday and was briefed on Lebanon. According to press accounts, the members agreed that the negotiations were stalled and that the PLO was simply playing for time.	25X
continued
Top Secret	25X

Тор	Secret
Comment: The press accounts of the cabin follow closely Prime Minister Begin's remarks government rally this weekend that the PLO had 30 days to leave Beirut. The public remarks intended to remind the US, prior to the visit Syrian and Saudi Foreign Ministers to Washingweek, of Israel's concern that negotiations nout indefinitely. Nonaligned Meeting	s at a pro- as less than are probably t of the gton this
The nonaligned movement concluded its methe Lebanon crisis with a communique that constant the Lebanon crisis with a communique that constant the Lebanon crisis with a communique that constant the Lebanon conference host Cyprus, thwarted an attempt the Lebanon conference host Cyprus, the Lebanon call for mand sanctions against the US.	ndemns n of the la, and py Syria, moderates were motivated by a desire not to he used at the conflict. The conflict also established a nine-member mission headed currently chairman of the nonaligned movement being and report on Israeli "atrocities." Comment: The communique's low key criticathe US reflects the growing influence of the They have spent months organizing to dislodge from the movement's leadership.	onference d by Cuba, c, to visit dcism of moderates.

Top Secret

4

25X1

25X1

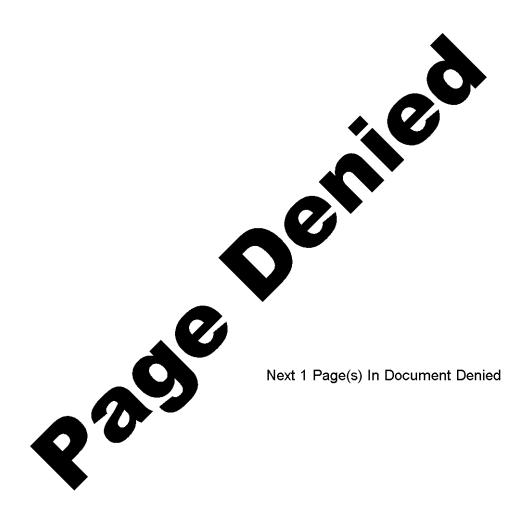

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1

JAPAN: Overseas Investment
//Japanese overseas investm during the fiscal year ending 31	ment increased substantial March 1982. The record outlays reflected the completion material development projects in	n of several large raw and an effort to appease Western	n trading partners by	. حد د locating production facilities i ularly in the US and the UK. Lo	ans to subsidiaries face	d with high interest rates abroad	also played a major role	•//
Comment: //The growth in o	overseas investment is recent depreciation of the yen will make outlays more e market for raw materials has mad the yen will make outlays more e market for raw materials has mad	nt in manufacturing facil	i-

Top Secret

7

